FOLLOW HOUNDS OVER HARD COURSE

Castle Hill Riders Enjoy Lively Chase on Saturday Afternoon.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Gordonsville, Va., January 1.—The Castle Hill hounds afforded excellent sport for their followers on Saturday afternoon. The meet was at "Montell's," the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Cowherd, Sr., at 3:30 o'clock. The first cast was made on the lawn and led through Montell's to the Thistlewood, where a short check was made. The fine pack of six couples found quickly and took the riders at a fast pace. All the riders took the four-foot fences in fine style without mishap to the sport.

The second cast was again made at "Montell's." The course ran to Lower Springfields, through G. T. Cowherd's farm, thence to M. D. Cowherd, Jr.'s, back to "Montell's" to the finish. The going was somewhat heavy, but the hunt was exceptionally good. Much of the course led over a hard turf, and the four-foot fences as they took the lawn. After the run the club and their friends were delightfully entertained at breakfast by Mr. and Mrs. Cowherd.

Those enjoying the sport were J. F. W. Ruffin, acting M. F. H., on Prince Royal; First Whip, Joe Ladd, on Maximus; Second Whip, Sandy, on Pulley; Whip, G. T. Cowherd, on Prince; R. G. Cowherd, on Budler; Carroll Baker, on Black Beauty; Herndon Cowherd, on Mountain Side; James C. Graves, on Ketchup; Mrs. G. T. Cowherd, on Nellie; Miss Martha Graves, on Martha; Mr. Miller, on Mission; Captain P. D. Barbour, on Midnight; Thomas Somerville, on Brown Bird.

Those who were guests at breakfast were Mrs. and Miss Genevieve Nickel, of Washington; Charles Camper, Miss Ida Camper, and James Camper, from near Orange; Miss Brocken and Mrs. Keesee Brocken, of Somerset; Mrs. John Chandler, of Washington; Miss Laura Newman, Miss Ashby Davis, W. F. Graves, Jas. Madison, James Jewell, of Gordonsville; Miss Homestead Graves, Mrs. J. F. W. Ruffin, Thomas Rives Potts, R. Beverly Goodie, Jerry Ashby, S. F. McElroy, Misses Albie Cosby, Hester Goodie, Julia Goodie, Irene Goodie, Mr. and Mrs. John Scott Cowherd, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, Alfred Goodie, of Roanoke; Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Cowherd, Jr., and Mrs. S. A. Goodie.

Miss Harnberger served punch.

JOE RIVERS KNOCKS OUT CONLEY IN ELEVENTH ROUND

Los Angeles, Cal., January 1.—Joe Rivers, of Los Angeles, knocked out Frankie Conley, of Honolulu, Wis., today in the eleventh round of their scheduled twenty-round fight at Vernon. At no time during the fight did Conley have a chance to win, and only once, in the first round, when he put a stiff left to Rivers' jaw as the latter was backing away, and then him to the floor, did he land a blow that seriously interfered with Rivers.

It was one of the fastest fights between featherweights ever seen in the Vernon ring.

Y. M. C. A. to Play College Quint.

Lynchburg, Va., January 1.—An announcement is made today that the Y. M. C. A. basketball five has just secured a game with Wake Forest College, to be played here February 6.

ANNUAL MEETING ON JANUARY 10

Eastern Shore Produce Exchange Enjoys Profitable Year. Other News.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Onancock, Va., January 1.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Eastern Shore Produce Exchange will be held at Cape Charles January 10. Meetings of the local branches were held Saturday afternoon when a statement of the year's work was made. The amount of produce handled was less than the previous year, but the aggregate receipts, on account of high prices, were larger. The business was satisfactory. The directors, at a previous meeting, declared a dividend of 10 per cent. The date for the meeting of the Mutual Exchange has not yet been announced. Considerable rivalry has existed between the two during the year, and the account of the first season's work is looked for with interest.

Frank Walter, who some time ago sold his fine estate, "Montgomery Hall," near Staunton, is building a two-story bungalow here for a summer home. The building is large and commodious and of unique architecture.

Merchants generally report a satisfactory Christmas trade. As a rule, sales were in excess of former years. The work of the farmer was irregular, the long drought and partial rains making the crop yield of the entire neighborhood almost a lottery. The receipts of some were beyond their expectations or hopes, while others within a few miles secured but little more than the planting.

Real estate in many sections of the county continues to advance. During the year, a tract of sixty-four acres, situated near the courthouse, belonging to the late Solomon Phillips, with improvements, brought at public auction $5,000.

Mrs. Betty Gray, of Onancock, who, at the age of eighty-two years, is still active and preaches over the household duties of her son, has with and near her four generations of descendants.

Large quantities of seed Irish potatoes, grown in Maine and New York State, are being brought to the shore for early planting.

Bowling

The Chesapeake and Ohio and the Norfolk and Western Bowling Leagues met last night at the Newport Alley, in their regular scheduled game, and both teams put up a game fight. The Chesapeake and Ohio bowlers captured the first game by a very small margin, but then came strong and captured the second. The Norfolk and Western bowlers won the final game in a walk. Jones, a new man signed by Norfolk and Western, was high score and high total for the Chesapeake and Ohio team. The scores follow:

Application Blank for Times-Dispatch Bowling Tournament.

Richmond, Va.,

I desire to enter The Times-Dispatch Elimination Bowling Tournament which begins Jan. 8 and closes Feb. 10. I agree to abide by the rules governing the tournament.

Suit me best to bowl.

Signed

TOURNAMENT WILL BE FOR AMATEURS ONLY

Attaches of Bowling Alleys All Are Barred From Entering—Beginners Are Desired, While Veterans Can Take a Chance Against Youngsters.

The Times-Dispatch Elimination Bowling Tournament promises to be the one big sporting event of the winter season. The core of those who frequent the alleys will enter, while many others, whose names have yet to be written in the bowling hall of fame, say that they will try conclusions with their more experienced brothers. The tournament is purely an amateur affair. Employees, proprietors or others connected in any way officially with bowling alleys are barred.

The tournament was designed and will be carried out for the purpose of determining just who are the best amateur bowlers of Richmond. It will be an amateur affair in every sense of the word. The prizes offered—a gold medal to the winner and silver and bronze medals to the second and third contestants—while not remunerative in any sense, will prove an incentive to the players, and should bring out the very best talent in the city. Every taint of professionalism will be removed. Not a single man will be allowed to compete who may have entered the professional ranks. The tournament is for the rank and file. The schedule, which will be drafted by experienced men, will be made up so as to not conflict with any dates of the leagues already organized. Each player will be notified when he is expected to bowl, and failure to appear at this time will forfeit all right to enter the tournament. A meeting of the executive committee of the Richmond Bowling Association will be held to-night at the Newport Alleys, at which time the tournament will be discussed and suggestions made.

Each day from now until Saturday, inclusive, an entry blank will be printed in The Times-Dispatch on the Sporting Page. This entry blank should be filled in and left, either at this office or at the Palace Alleys, Eighth and Broad Streets, or the Newport. Verbal statements that a bowler is not connected with the executive committee of the association will not be accepted.

Some of those who have already signed their intention of battling for the amateur bowling championship of Richmond, by signing and filling application blanks, follow: Archie Pleasant, R. H. Van Dine, J. E. James, George F. Robelin, J. H. Sled, George Wrenn, Howard D. Bryant, Bradley Roe, H. L. Cupp, O. C. Lohmann, Carl Sheriff, O. Sutterlin, G. S. Zellers.

The rules governing the tournament follow:

1. Any bowler in the city of Richmond, with the exception of those employed in alleys, is entitled to enter.

2. No entrance fee is charged. The only expense attaching to the entrants being the cost of the games bowled.

3. Each entrant will bowl five or desires to enter the tournament will round, total pins to count.

4. Those making the highest totals will qualify for the second round, the lowest totals being dropped. This same plan will be followed through the third, fourth and each succeeding round thereafter until the winner has been determined, the scores in all rounds being added together and the total pins counting.

5. In event of a tie a deciding round will be played.

6. The winner will be given a gold medal. The second man a silver medal and the third man a bronze medal. Each contestant will be given a souvenir of the tournament.

7. Rules of the National Bowling Association will apply during the tournament.

8. The tournament will begin Monday, January 8. Entries close Saturday night at 6 o'clock. Entry blanks, printed in The Times-Dispatch, may be filled in and left at the Palace, Newport or with the Bowling Editor of The Times-Dispatch.

Washington, D. C., January 1.—Two months from today the sixteen managers of big league clubs will be starting on their annual gamble.

The big preliminary to the big pastime is just like ordinary mine investments. There are such things as rich-paying mines; the thing is to find them. And finding them is tough work. Nearly all mines look alike, some being ore and others not.

Picking bull players is like picking the right mine. Hundreds of them are ricked up every year, and those who look best often turn into "lemons," while those who looked to be an abandoned hope turn out to be wonders.

Terence Cobb says that "Buck" O'Brien, Boston's new pitcher, will be the best hurler in the major leagues. According to the world's premier batsman, O'Brien has more than any young pitcher he ever battled against.

Year before last, when the Tigers were playing in Cuba, O'Brien was down there, but no one saw anything in his work that would attract attention. After the Tigers left the island Charley Carr and his Indianapolis team invaded Cuba. Carr also looked O'Brien over, but saw nothing in his work that would give him credit for being a good pitcher.

Another thing happened year before last. A young fellow of the name of Grover Cleveland Alexander was pitching in the minor leagues. Several big league scouts, among them one engaged by the Detroit club, who happened that way, looked him over. Few even went to the extent of filing a report on Alexander. He was regarded simply as an impossibility.

But Alexander, who the Phillies put in a draft for him. They got him that way. When Alexander was awarded to Philadelphia no one made a fuss about it. Not a man in the major leagues suspected that Alexander had a thing in his repertoire that would fool the big league batsmen. No one commented on him.

At the same time Owner Frank J. Navin, of the Tigers, got several players by draft that everybody was after. They called him "Lucky Frank" and "Horsehoe Navin," because he pulled them down for practically nothing. One or two of them were players that were highly valued in the minors.

They came by draft simply because the owners of the minor league clubs for which they played thought so much of them that they asked in the neighborhood of $5,000 and $6,000, which none of the major league clubs was willing to pay. They all put in a draft for them, though, and Navin got them. Not one of them turned out to be even a mediocre big leaguer.

While the big Tigers were proving unworthy, the young man owning the name of Grover Cleveland Alexander was making himself the biggest sensation in the major leagues. He is a wonderful pitcher. Ask Charlie Dolin, who caught him, and ask some of the sluggers in the present organization who he battled against him. If he keeps in condition next year see what his record will be.

Lightning always strikes from unexpected quarters and a ten-cent team. And Connie himself started that saying.
